

Case Study

Carotid and Vertebral Artery Stenosis

Carotid Stenting for Ulcerated Stenosis

A 72-year-old male presented with stroke due to an ulcerated calcified stenosis at left carotid bifurcation. Stent assisted angioplasty resulted in complete recanalization. At 2-year follow-up patient is symptom free.

A- Severe narrowing of carotid artery with ulceration

B- Angiogram after stenting showing complete re-opening of artery with no evidence of ulcer.